

Tayseer Shamran Al-Deresawi

تيسير شمران الدريساوي

Assistant Professor

PROFILE

Tayseer Shamran Al-Deresawi is an active scholar and researcher with a growing portfolio of academic contributions. Demonstrating a sustained commitment to scholarly inquiry and evidence-based research, he has authored 18 publications indexed on Google Scholar.

His research output has gained steady recognition within the international academic community, accumulating 40 citations and earning an h-index of 4. These metrics highlight his consistent participation in scientific discourse and the meaningful reach of his published work.

Al-Deresawi's academic focus centers on rigorous investigation, critical analysis, and the advancement of knowledge within his specialized discipline. Through his ongoing research endeavors, he actively contributes to peer-reviewed literature and engages in scholarly collaboration. Dedicated to addressing contemporary research questions, he continues to disseminate impactful findings aimed at fostering innovation and furthering academic discourse in his field.
